

AB 172 Web Posting

Tools

Orange County Program Literacy Self-Assessment Tool

Orange County/ Anaheim City School District Literacy Party Information

Orange County Resource Directory

Incentive Reward Description

Websites

Interactive Literacy Activities – Even Start Model

www.evenstart.org

Transition activities for schools, parents, community

www.terrifictransitions.org

School Ready Checklist -National Education Goals Panel (NEGP)

www.govinfo.library.unt.edu/negp

UCLA School Readiness Technical Resources

General resource offering school readiness information, leveraged funding, grants

<http://www.healthychild.ucla.edu/First5CAReadiness/>

Head Start Governance Model

http://www.headstartinfo.org/program_governance.htm

Parent Incentive Reward Description

- Parents attending any literacy activity (PACT, Adult Education, parent meetings, home visits) would be given literacy reward tickets.
- Tickets collected throughout the year can be “spent” at the literacy store.
- Literacy Store contains literacy based items such as adult and child books(new or used) , bookshelves, writing journals, pens, crayons, puzzles, paper and any other literacy materials selected by staff (and parents). The Store could be a locked cabinet
- Literacy Store could be open once a week, once a month, etc. based on need.
- Focus of Store could also house items such as food gift certificates, grocery stores items, etc.
- Literacy Store would be funded by local business donations.
- Parents in the program could be surveyed as to where they shop, eat. etc.
- Staff and parent volunteers would target those specific community businesses for support.
- Parents with the most “literacy rewards” would be recognize at a function.

Costs Involved:

Personnel/Literacy Volunteer to maintain inventory of donations.

Copying cost of the “reward tickets”

Small fund to provide items when donations do not cover the need.